

SOLUTIONS TABLE

Co-funded by
the European Union

Reference: 2023-1-ES02-KA220-YOU-000154952

EU Programme: Erasmus+ KA2 Cooperation
Partnership YOUTH

radicalgame.eu

INDEX

- ALDA ----- 1
- SCIENCELANDS--2
- DEMOSTINET-----3
- CORELANDIC----4
- BALWANA-----5
- INNOVA-----6

 radicalgame.eu

Country: ALDA - Climate Change

SCENARIOS	SOLUTIONS
	Socially Responsible	Moderate Behaviour	Impostor
Mass Protest in Alda: Youth Activists Condemn Government Inaction on Climate Crisis	I have been involved for years in many peaceful protests and (...)	As an employee of the Ministry of Environment and Energy, I started a social media campaign to (...)	As a member of the environmental group "Save Alda" we painted the facade of the Ministry (...)
Firestorm of Outrage: Journalist Blames Government for Climate Crisis and Fires	With the help of the energetic journalist Mrs Brand, many non-profit organizations and charities, I started an environmental initiative (...)	As a fellow journalist, I was disappointed by Ms. Brandt's dismissal. I started an online petition and (...)	As someone deeply opposed to the prevailing system, I could not stand idly by and organised an armed mobilisation (...)
Tye-Meláne: A Cycle of Destruction - Fires, Floods, and the Climate Debate	As a member of a green NGO with many scientists as members, I believe that we have the means to tame all these extremes. (...)	As an active member of a self-managed solidarity kitchen last weekend, we collected and delivered 4 tons of food (...)	In the last year I have seen many videos of fringe groups offering protection to our vulnerable citizens by (...)
Urban Greenery in Crisis: The Battle for Trees and Parks in Alda	Residents of many municipalities are trying by every legal means to protect their parks from greedy businessmen (...)	Volunteer groups started tree planting and patrolling on 200 acres of the municipality to show their practical support (...)	On a spring afternoon, disheartened residents of the Norno neighborhood began breaking through the concrete (...)
Balancing Tourism's Economic Benefits with Environmental Costs	Under the slogan "Walk for the next generations", thousands of citizens held a climate march in the capital Alda. (...)	In response to what happened, I will participate in the first voluntary environmental clean-up action (...)	A group of highly activist environmentalists has made death threats against the Prime Minister and taken some tourists as hostages. (...)

Country: SCIENCELANDS - Education

SCENARIOS	SOLUTIONS
	Socially Responsible	Moderate Behaviour	Impostor
Echoes of Disregard: The Struggle for Belonging at the Institute	As the principal, after a discussion with the student group president, we decided to set up a system where students can (...)	As the principal, I reached an agreement with the student group president to set up a rotating system. (...)	As the principal, I will demand the student president to ensure that all students follow cleanliness and behaviour rules. (...)
Silent Struggles: Flip's Concern for Nirpal	My beloved friend, (...) I think that you need to speak with the school counselor about this and your family. (...)	My beloved friend, (...) No, you don't. I am okay, and please do not ask me this again. (...)	My beloved friend, (...) I think that we need to take revenge (...)
Rivalry Ignites: The Arrival of New Students	As the principal of the school, I think that we need to introduce a holistic integration approach (...)	As the principal of the school, I believe we can organize an introductory activity tomorrow morning (...)	As the principal of the school, I will increase the supervision during school hours, (...)
The Cost of Conformity: A Clash with Authority	I want to address the incident to the principal. (...)	I think that I need to remain silent and avoid further confrontation with the professor Marpill. (...)	I would do something to the teacher that would embarrass her in front of the whole class, (...)
From a Distant Galaxy: Gin's Struggles in The Sciencelands	Teacher: I think that I need to first speak with Gin in order to understand exactly what is happening. (...)	Teacher: I think that the best of Gin is to choose not to have a direct intervention and (...)	Teacher: I think the best thing to do with Gin is to expose the students who make fun of him (...)

Country: DEMOSTINET - Democracy

SCENARIOS	SOLUTIONS
	Socially Responsible	Moderate Behaviour	Impostor
Exposed: The Corruption Behind the Youth Fund	We as citizens are directly affected by this scandal, and we are determined to make a change. (...)	This scandal concerns and affects our community. That's why we have come together, using the skills and tools we have: technology. (...)	Enough is enough. As a citizen, we feel compelled to find a solution. We have joined this group of activists taking to the streets, (...)
The battle for Green Public Spaces	They are making changes without consulting us, the people who have cherished and nurtured this place for years! (...)	We understand the need for progress, we believe decisions like this must reflect and take into account the voices of the people (...)	It is unfair that this decision has been made without consulting us, the citizens of Demostinet. (...)
The price of art	We have come so far! As community advocates, we organised a series of public workshops and discussions about (...)	I live in Demostinet, and as its citizen, I found it very important to support the community. (...)	A large part of the country relies on tourism. Still, this imposition has inevitably reduced artistic performances, (...)
The online voting controversy	I am so proud of our community organizations! They are carrying out an open dialogue with Demostinet Council (...)	I didn't know exactly what to do. But then I thought that probably other people felt the same. So why don't go ask them directly? (...)	I think it's unfair for someone to set requirements so high that only a few can meet them. (...)
Echoes of Power: Divisive Narratives	I love how this community-led initiative brings together independent journalists and individuals to raise awareness (...)	We have heavily criticized the journal. We don't like the tone, we don't appreciate how fellow citizens are treated, (...)	Honestly, in response to the journal's influence and the narratives it promotes, some residents are really offended. (...)

Country: CORELANDIC - Sport

SCENARIOS	SOLUTIONS
	Socially Responsible	Moderate Behaviour	Impostor
Metachampion World League	You come across the viral videos online and start posting about the need for calm (...)	You keep an eye on the events and follow the updates on social media (...)	You join the gathering at the demonstration site and end up (...)
Chaos at the Court	You set up a small stage and address the crowd (...)	You speak briefly to a few people in the crowd, but the mood is too charged to continue (...)	You join the crowd and speak to several people, firmly sharing your perspective (...)
Corelandic e-Sport Scandal	You start a social media campaign to raise awareness and bring attention to the issue (...)	You follow the discussions online and talk about it with friends (...)	You go to a protest near a major sports venue, joining others who want to disrupt upcoming events (...)
Fractured Community	You form a committee with locals and hold a meeting at the town hall (...)	You know that stopping touristic investments isn't easy for a small group of young people (...)	You join a group of locals who express their frustrations through defiance (...)
Building Bridges Through Sport	You decide to address the false claims by sharing facts and positive messages about the sports programme on social media (...)	You notice the hateful posts online and recognise they are based on misinformation (...)	You read the posts and find some of them amusing (...)

Country: BALWANA - Urbanism

SCENARIOS	SOLUTIONS
	Socially Responsible	Moderate Behaviour	Impostor
Miles to Go: Henry's Struggle for a New Beginning	I will be creating an online petition so that other people that are affected by the lack of public transport (...)	I will be sending a letter to the ministry of public transport and also call them about it (...)	I am really fed up with the public transport situation. I will be going to the ministry of public transport (...)
Forced Out: Suzanne's Struggle in a Changing City	I believe I should call the government. It is unacceptable to leave their citizens are homeless (...)	I have seen a group circulating recently about the housing situation and they organize support groups (...)	I can't stand this housing situation; this is a stressful situation (...)
Henry's Coastal Conundrum: A Race Against Time to Find a Home	I have seen online that there is a resident's rights group, amidst this housing crisis that has come up (...)	I think I am going to talk to my landlord. I will explain to her that everything is so expensive (...)	The landlord had it coming, I am going to camp outside of her house (...)
Ariel's Cycling Struggle: Balancing Work, Safety, and Heat in a Growing Town	I have been taking with a lot of people using their bicycle and all of us have the same issues (...)	I will be starting a petition for the creation of proper infrastructures in the town (...)	The situation is really getting out of hand and I can't stand it anymore, I need to do something immediately (...)
Urban Challenges: The Search for Food Security in Balwana	We have decided to open a collective kitchen initiative (...)	There is an initiative about food waste here and food scarcity (...)	We are fed up with the whole situation. It feels unsafe (...)

Country: INNOVA- Employment

SCENARIOS	SOLUTIONS
	Socially Responsible	Moderate Behaviour	Impostor
Unemployment and Extremism	Create a micro-grant initiative for small businesses that hire and train unemployed youth (...)	Launch a comprehensive skills development program offering free vocational training and (...)	Implement a community art and storytelling project that uses creative expression to bridge cultural gaps and (...)
Workplace Inclusivity	Establish an inclusivity task force comprised of employees from diverse backgrounds, (...)	Offer financial incentives for departments that hire and promote disabled employees (...)	Host a series of high-profile inclusivity events featuring guest speakers and success stories of (...)
Union Suppression	Establish a confidential whistleblower program where employees can anonymously report workplace issues, (...)	Encourage a voluntary corporate social responsibility (CSR) campaign by the company to (...)	Introduce a collaborative dialogue initiative involving company leaders, workers, and independent labor rights experts to (...)
Job Security and Radical Movements	Organize motivational workshops led by prominent leaders in the radical labor movement to (...)	Establish a job transition fund supported by the company and local government to provide retraining programs (...)	Form a temporary workforce council that allows workers to engage directly with company leadership, (...)
Gender Equality	Implement a cross-company wage parity task force that includes representatives from (...)	Introduce a 'Fair Pay Challenge' where companies commit to raising wages transparently and equally (...)	Launch a comprehensive workplace wellness program designed to support overall employee satisfaction, (...)